Los Angeles, CA (PRWEB) January 2, 2006 -- Over $40,000 in Christmas gifts were donated by guests who attended the recent Rockin' 4 Relief Christmas Toy Drive presented by J.E.P. Entertainment and sponsors to benefit The Dream Center.

Held at the West Hollywood night spot, The Key Club, the night included performances by Slapbak, Aaron G., Clarin, and Shawn Rivera, renowned comedians including T.K. Carter, Tommy Davidson, and Kym Whitley also took the stage to entertain.

Celebrity guests for the Rockin' 4 Relief Christmas Toy Drive included Vivica A. Fox, socialite and bestselling author Eric Schiffer, comedian TK Carter, Verdeen White of Earth, Wind and Fire, comedian Tommy Davidson, celebrity Stylist Scott Julion, and The Dream Center's Bishop Noel Jones.

One of the most well-regarded churches in Southern California, The Dream Center is a ministry and non-profit outreach dedicated to helping inner-city residents in meeting their spiritual and tangible needs. In addition to providing food, shelter, education and job training, The Dream Center is among LA-area organizations also providing assistance to Gulf Coast residents displaced by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

“Bishop Jones has done a lot for the community and we believe in how he cares for our children,” said J.E.P. Entertainment's Julion. “When he expressed a need and desire to help children in need at Christmastime, we wanted to respond.”
